

Inter Faith Week 2017

12–19 November

An opportunity to:

- Strengthen good inter faith relations at all levels
- Increase awareness of the different and distinct faith communities in the UK, in particular celebrating and building on the contribution which their members make to their neighbourhoods and to wider society
- Increase understanding between people of religious and non-religious beliefs

Some ways of marking the Week

- Faith trails, open door days and exchange visits
- Dialogues, debates and talks
- Joint social action projects
- School activities
- Hands-on learning activities and exhibitions
- Campus faith and belief events
- Workplace religious literacy training/ webinars
- Art and photography competitions
- Inter faith sporting events
- Launching a new project or initiative
- Film, drama or story-telling events
- Inter faith media or social media campaigns
- Showcasing music or dance from different traditions
- Faith and food events – however you do it, everyone likes to eat!

Join the many faith, belief and inter faith bodies, community and voluntary organisations, workplaces, local authorities, emergency services, SACREs, schools, colleges, universities, chaplaincies, sports organisations and others who will be taking part this year.

The Week runs from a Sunday to a Sunday, beginning on Remembrance Sunday. This year, why not consider an inter faith event linked to this or to the commemoration of the centenary of World War I?

Our website provides further ideas, resources and info.
