

Sacred Listening is the Basis of Interfaith Harmony

An event in honour of UN World Interfaith Harmony Week

Facilitator: Nivy Balachandran, Regional Coordinator of the United Religions Initiative and Executive Member of Religions for Peace Australia. Nivy is a recognised young leader of interfaith and intercultural affairs and works in the area of conflict transformation and cross cultural communication. Nivy belongs to the Hindu faith and she will be joined by her husband, Tal Meretz, from the Jewish faith tradition.

Sunday 11 February 2018 3.00-4.30pm
UTAS Multifaith Centre, TUU Building
Churchill Ave, Sandy Bay

Religions for Peace Australia (Tas Branch) gratefully acknowledges the financial support of the Multicultural Council of Tasmania

MULTICULTURAL
COUNCIL of TASMANIA