
THE IRISH PEACE PROCESS LESSONS LEARNED

SPEAKER: John, Lord Alderdice

This lecture offers important lessons learned from the Irish Peace Process about how communities can overcome what appears to be intractable violent conflict and work towards peace and stability.

John Alderdice, by profession a psychoanalytic psychiatrist, was for eleven years Leader of the cross-community Alliance Party, one of the negotiators of the 1998 Good Friday Agreement and Speaker of the new Northern Ireland Assembly. He is the recipient of many honorary degrees and awards for his work on conflict resolution in various parts of the world and is Chair of the Liberal Democrat Parliamentary Party in the House of Lords.

WHERE: The Melbourne Brain Centre
Kenneth Myer Building
University of Melbourne
30 Royal Pde, Parkville

WHEN: Thursday 5th September

TIME: 6.00pm – 7.30pm

COST: FREE

REGISTRATION: Online: www.trybooking.com/DDGP
Phone: 0450 540 366
Email: enquiries@casse.org.au

CASSE's mission is to create safe, supportive environments for individuals, families and communities through psychoanalytic awareness. CASSE is a non-profit organisation and is currently conducting programs in schools and Aboriginal communities.