

PROMOTING EQUALITY AND RESPECT:

An interfaith collaboration on preventing family violence

An Introductory Presentation by Jill Shanti

Jill Shanti was a member on the Interfaith Working Group of the document Challenge Family Violence produced by the Greater Dandenong Interfaith Network (an equal but independent partner with the City of Greater Dandenong Council). As a trained Community Development Worker, Jill has worked for 20 years both to raise awareness in matters of family violence and to empower women and children to create new ways to take control of their own lives, free from fear of violence. She has spoken internationally on the topic, in both east and west. In 2013, she was an invited delegate to the UN Status of Women's Conference, Eradicating Violence Against Women and Young Girls, where she was a guest speaker and held several workshops.
